OVERVIEW

Who We Are

Dyaloni Foods Pvt Ltd is a food company operating from Thane, Maharashtra. We manufacture and retail frozen yogurt under our own brand, YogurtYork.

The company handles the parts customers never see — milk sourcing, culturing the base in our own kitchen, quality control, cold-chain management and the operating standards every outlet has to meet. YogurtYork is the customer-facing brand: the flavour wall, the topping bar, the counter and the crew.

We are a young company and we say so plainly. That is also the reason we can reformulate a flavour over a single conversation, and why every recipe on our wall has been argued about before it earned a lever.

STANDARDS

How We Make It

Cultured in-house

Every batch is fermented from milk in our own kitchen with live active cultures. We do not reconstitute a flavoured powder, which is the industry shortcut.

Real fruit, no artificial colour

Fruit flavours are built on puree. That is why our strawberry is dusty pink rather than neon, and why some flavours are seasonal.

Named ingredients only

No hydrogenated fat, no artificial colour, and a short list of naturally derived stabilisers we will name on request.

Cold chain discipline

Insulated transport, temperature logging and machine calibration checks through the day. Texture is the first thing a broken cold chain destroys.

SERVICES

Events & Catering Formats

Live Counter — The full experience, rebuilt at your venue

Everything we have, packed into a van and set up where you are. Four flavours running, a topping bar people photograph before they touch it, and a crew who will still be smiling at midnight.

Party Cart — Small gathering, same effect

A wheeled cart with two flavours and a curated topping spread. Fits on a terrace, in a clubhouse, or in the corner of a living room — and it changes the mood of all three.

Party Packs — We deliver, you play host

Sealed tubs and a topping kit delivered chilled to your door. You set the table, you get the credit, and nobody has to know how easy it was.

Corporate & Bulk — For the days the team deserves better than cake

Bulk tubs, branded cups and optional custom sleeves. A quarterly celebration people actually turn up to, and a client gift that does not go straight into a drawer.

LEADERSHIP

The People Behind the Company

Founder Name — Founder & Director, Dyaloni Foods Pvt Ltd

Dyaloni Foods Pvt Ltd was started in Mumbai with a background in food operations and a long-standing frustration with how Indian dessert menus force a choice between enjoyment and regret. The first year of the company went almost entirely into product — culture strains, milk sourcing, sugar levels and serving temperature — before a single counter was designed.

That product-first instinct still runs the business. YogurtYork grows only as fast as it can stay good, and every flavour on the wall has been tasted, argued over and reworked before it earns a lever.
